Testimonials. The candidate for admission to College, previous to his examination, must produce satisfactory evidence that he sustains a fair moral character, and that he has completed the part of the course preparatory to the standing for which he is offered; if he has been a member of another College, a certificate of regular dismissal will also be required.

Age. No one is admissible to the Freshman Class until he has completed his fourteenth year; nor to an advanced standing without a corresponding increase of age.

Payments. The amount of the first Term bill will be paid by each student on his admission. If he enters in advance, the usual fee for advanced standing,—eight dollars and fifty cents per term,—will be required, unless such standing shall have been attained in another College. A bond in the sum of two hundred dollars for the payment of College bills, must be given within one Term, excepting by beneficiaries of Charitable Associations, whose bills are paid by the fund appropriated to this purpose.
